

Lyrics w/ chords

D
 Low down leaving sun
 D7 Done, did everything that needs done G
 Woe is me... why can't I see... D B7
 E7 I'd best be leaving well enough alone A7

D
 Them neon light nights, couldn't stay out of fights
 D7 Keep a-haunting me in memo---ries G
 Well, there's one in every crowd, for crying out loud... D B7
 E7 Why was it always turning out to be me? A7

D
 Where does it go? The good Lord only knows
 D7 Seems like it was just the other day G
 I was down at Green Gables, hawking them tables D B7
 E7 And generally blowing all my hard earned pay A7

D
 Piano rolled blues, danced holes in my shoes
 D7 There weren't another other way to be G
 For lovable losers, no account boozers D B7
 E7 And honky tonk heroes like me.... hey hey D

(start heavier strumming)

(for remaining verses, use same chords)

Where does it go? The good Lord only knows [...]

Piano rolled blues, danced holes in my shoes [...]

Where does it go? The good Lord only knows [...]

Piano rolled blues, danced holes in my shoes [...]